

BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT

Filed by Blanche Williams of Arlington Against Nathan Porter

Asks Damages in the Sum of
$6,000 and Petitions Court
For Restraining Order

Quite a sensation developed today when Miss Blanche Williams, of Arlington, filed a breach of promise suit against Nathan Porter, a well-to-do farmer of Posey township, demanding $6000 damages. Both parties are well known in this city, and have a host of friends throughout the county.

In her complaint she states that Porter brought into play every means known to the wit of the ordinary individual when often in her company, and succeeding in gaining her affection, and on March 1st, 1904, after repeated solicitation, she agreed to marry him.

Then, she alleges, for no reason or cause, he broke off the engagement and refused to marry her on October 20th, 1906.

She says that she suffered great humiliation, mortification and embarrassment, and now demands damages to the extent of $6000.

She further alleges that defendant owns property valued at $9000, and says he has threatened to dispose of it, and she petitions the court to issue a restraining order to prevent Mr. Porter from disposing of his property, until after the breach of promise case is tried. Watson, Tittsworth & Green are attorneys for the plaintiff.

DISPOSED OF LIVERY BARN

George Caldwell Sold His Interest in Livery Barn to
W. S. Cover Today

One of the largest business trades that has been made in this city for some time, occurred today, when George Caldwell sold his interest in the large livery establishment to William S. Cover. The consideration for the entire business was $8000. Mr. Caldwell will remain in this city for the present, and will engage in the horse buying business exclusively.

Mr. Cover recently purchased a half interest in the livery barn. He was formerly connected with the old Alger & Gray mill in this city.

Mr. Caldwell did not dispose of the bus and baggage transfer line.

—Mr. and Mrs. O. P. McCarty, of Lee Summit, Mo., who came to this city to visit Mr. and Mrs. Abe Bowen and to attend the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Levi P. Retherford, left for Shelbyville today, where they will visit for a short time before returning to their home.

—Mrs. R. F. Scudder and daughter, Helen spent the day in Indianapolis.

RIOTERS BROUGHT TO JUSTICE

Two are Fined in Mayor's Court
While Others Will be Tried Next Friday

Charles Bell was before Mayor Cowing yesterday, charged with being one of the instigators and participants in the Hallowe'en riot, Wednesday night. He pleaded guilty to the charge of rioting and was fined $10 and costs, amounting to $20 in all, which he paid. John Stamm also pleaded guilty to the same charge and was fined an equal amount.

This morning Omer Pea and Charles Sorrell were arrested by Marshal Price and brought before Mayor Cowing, charged with being in the party that assaulted Fred Cook, Charles Berry, Benny Sparks, Harry Brown and others in the riot Wednesday night, near the terminal station. They pleaded not guilty and their trial was set for Friday morning, November 9th, at nine o'clock. Both gave bond in the sum of $50 for their appearance.

Other arrests will follow as soon as certain parties are located by the officers. It is said that several of the boys have left this city.

TOWNSHIP AND COUNTY BALLOTS

Thirty-Six Thousand Four Hundred of Them Printed at the Republican Office

The election commissioners, Will McColgin, Earnest B. Thomas and Howard E. Barrett met yesterday afternoon and apportioned the county and township ballots to the various precincts of the county. The ballots had to be carefully counted, packed and sealed and labeled for rapid handling. All this took time and the commissioners did not get through until late last night. Today the respective precinct election inspectors came in to get the ballots and other election supplies.

The county and township ballots were printed at the Republican office, and on account of the large vote and increase of population it was necessary to print 18,200 county ballots and the same number of township ballots—about 4000 more ballots that were printed for the election two years ago. The ballots had to be carefully printed, and all those that had blemishes of any kind were thrown out. They were then counted twice, and divided in bunches of one hundred. The double counting of over 36,000 sheets of paper was very tedious work, but the expeditious manner in which the job was turned out—inside of four days, speaks volumes for the facilities of the Republican office.

INTEREST TAKEN IN CORN CLUB

Many Young Men of this County in Attendance at the Meeting Today

The assembly room at the court house was comfortably filled today at the meeting of the Boys Corn club of this county. Supt. W. O. Headlee presided at the meeting and expressed his satisfaction in seeing so much interest manifested in the movement, and for the large number of young men in attendance.

Prof. John T. Haines delivered an address that was full of facts and general information that will prove valuable to the young men in the raising of corn.

HELPS COLLECTORS

Government Shows a Disposition to Aid in Souvenir Postal Card Craze

The government is showing every consideration to the collectors of souvenir postal cards. The Postmaster General issued an order that on and after March 1st next such cards, bearing written messages upon the left hand of the front, the right half being reserved for the address and postmark, when fully prepaid at postal card rates, shall be admitted both to the domestic and international mails of this country. From this day it has been ordered that souvenir cards similarly inscribed and mailed in foreign countries and fully prepaid shall be delivered to addresses in the United States without additional charges. Heretofore the rules of the department required that the one side of the card should be reserved for the addresses. This necessitated the disfigurement of the illustrated side if the sender wished to convey a message.

A COMPARISON OF PROSECUTOR RECORDS

Mr. Hack, Democratic candidate for prosecuting attorney in a speech at Rushville, speaking of Elmer Bassett, Republican candidate and of enforcement of liquor and gambling laws, said: "I have made my record and upon it I must stand. Mr. Bassett is making his record and upon it he must stand."

Mr. Hack was prosecuting attorney for two years, from Jan. 1st, 1903, to Jan. 1st, 1905, and since Jan. 1905, Mr. Bassett has been prosecuting attorney. What do the records show?

In the two years of his office in Shelby county, Mr. Hack secured 7 convictions, and in Rush county 35, or a total of 42 convictions in the judicial circuit for violations of liquor and gambling laws.

Mr. Bassett in the twenty-one months of his office has secured in Shelby county 109 and in Rush county 93, or a total of 202 in the circuit for violations of gambling and liquor laws. Nearly five times as many as Hack.

Hack says he will enforce the laws. Actions speak louder than words. He was prosecutor two years and failed. What can you hope for now. If you stand for law enforcement, vote for Bassett.

ED T. WORSHAM KILLS HIMSELF

Hanged Himself at His Home
East of this City
Yesterday

Well Known Farmer Had Been in Poor Health and Had Become Despondent

Edward T. Worsham, age forty-one years, one of the best known citizens of the Bunker Hill neighborhood, east of Glenwood committed suicide yesterday by hanging himself.

Mr. Worsham's body was hanging, suspended by a rope, from the top of a ladder. He had deliberately planned his own destruction. The rope was adjusted about his neck and tied to the top rung of the ladder, which was leaning against the side of the barn. He then let himself between the top rung of the ladder and dropped to his death.

For a long time Mr. Worsham has been in poor health. His decline had been gradual, until recently his appearance indicated that his death was but a matter of a short time.

The sad affair cast a gloom over the community in which the tragedy occurred. Deceased was well known, was a kind friend and good neighbor. He is survived by his wife and three children, Mabel, Lillian and Clarence. The family resides about twelve miles east of this city, in Fayette county.

The funeral will occur from the residence Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. Burkhardt officiating.

HICKS PROMISES STORMS FOR MONTH OF NOVEMBER

In his forecasts for November, Rev. Hicks says that a reactionary storm period is central on the 2d, 3d and 4th. The intervals between the periods will be unsettled and threatening, making a "spell of bad weather" during the opening days of November.

WORMS HARMLESS

Horse Hair Specie Not Appetizing, But is Not Poisonous,
so Says Dr. Keene

The old-fashioned horse hair or cabbage worn is declared harmful from an esthetic, but harmless from hygienic standpoint, by T. Victor Keene, superintendent of the State laboratory of hygiene.

"From all over the State," said Dr. Keene, "we are receiving these horse hair worms. They are found now in sauer kraut, and the senders wish to know whether they are harmful or not. Our reply has been that though not pleasant, they are not harmful to the extent that a barrel of it should be condemned because of the presence of a few of these worms."

UPHOLD GOV. HANLY'S REFORM MEASURES

A vote for H. E. Guffin, for Representative, means backing up Governor Hanly's administration, and the holding up of our reform governor's hands.

Albert Lieber, the millionaire brewer, backed up by "Red Devil" Tom Taggart and John W. Kern, has threatened to fill the legislative halls with Democratic representatives who will protect his interests. Is Rush county to have the whip of the boot-ling, booting brewers and corruptionists cracked in her face? Vote for Guffin and stand by our governor.

In his speech in this city, last week, Governor Hanly said: "My friends, though every legislator in both branches be against me, I know of one man that will be with me in carrying out the reform work barely begun and that man is Henry E. Guffin. I want you to send him back."

So let us send him back with a good round majority, in the name of the sacredness of the homes in Indiana.

No voter who has the real interests of Indiana at heart should think for a minute of turning the legislature over to the brewers, the railroads or the insurance trust. The reform measures so well begun in the last legislature should be completed. To do this the friends of reform must have a majority in the assembly. Don't let anybody persuade you into swapping votes on representative.

DESCENDANTS OF ROBERT CALDWELL

Are Many in this County—Revolutionary Soldier's Grave is Properly Marked

In publishing the list of Revolutionary soldiers, yesterday, the name of Robert Caldwell was omitted. He enlisted at Greensburg, Penn. and served three years in the war of '76. He was born June 1st, 1757, and died July 31st, 1846, and buried in the Lockridge burying ground near Concord school house, where the grave is marked by a stone furnished by the government.

Robert Caldwell was 89 years of age at the time of his death and has many descendants in this county, among them are the following great grandchildren: W. A. Caldwell, Oliver Caldwell, James E. Caldwell, George H. Caldwell, Mrs. Anna Moses, Harvey Mauzy, Z. E. Mauzy, Mrs. Mary Ford, Mrs. Lida Moore, Mrs. Marion Mock, and Mrs. M. C. Burt.

The Republican would be pleased to learn more about other Revolutionary soldiers, who lived in this county.

CONCERT COMPANY PLEASES CROWD

Varied Program by Eva Bartlett
Macey Company is Well Received

A large crowd turned out to hear the Eva Bartlett Macey Concert company at the Christian church last night, and if frequent applause is a fair criterion, they were pleased with the concert. There was enough variety in the program for some part of the entertainment to appeal to the most critical.

Too much cannot be said of the work of Hugo Hjerstedt, the violinist. His technique was almost perfect and his execution brilliant. Few, if any, violin soloists, his equal have ever appeared in this city. And the harp soloist, H. J. Williams, was encored time and again.

The soprano soloist, Isabel Holbrook Williams, was nothing out of the ordinary, although she possesses a fairly good voice, has good platform presence and pleased the large crowd present.

Eva Bartlett Macey is a hard worker on the platform, but this fact was palpable that it reflected on the artistic value of her efforts. She has a poor voice for a dramatic character reader, but the good judgment she exercised in selecting an interesting repertoire of readings, and monologues, is to be commended. But Eva Bartlett Macey makes a mistake in attempting too varied a program, for her fort is straight, legitimate reading and not versatility. Her reading of the Spanish bull fight was a clever bit of descriptive work, and the closing number "Good-bye," by Eugene Fields, was immense.

On a whole the entertainment was pleasing, and those in charge of the lecture course in this city, deserve a large measure of credit for securing such a high class number, but this applies particularly to the male members of the concert company.

John Plough [resigned his position as rural mail carrier Nov. 1st, and Roll Richey is substituting for him, until the examination which will be held in December, when a regular carrier will be appointed. Mr. Plough disposed of his household goods and personal effects today, and will remove to Detroit, Mich., to make his home in the future with his daughter, Mrs. Lula Downing.

Byron Cowing was not so well yesterday evening, but is much improved today.

The walls that were blown over by the strong wind last Saturday, have been put back in place and the new building will soon be completed, and ready for occupancy.

MANY CHEER WATSON SPEECH

"Our Jim" Simply Carries
Them Off Their Feet
With a Great Speech

Spoke For Over an Hour in
Terre Haute Coliseum
Last Night

"Our Jim" spoke to a crowd that filled the Coliseum in Terre Haute last night, and literally carried the immense audience off their feet. The Indianapolis Star says:

"Congressman James E. Watson spoke for an hour and made a great hit. He had his audience on its feet chattering time and again. The Sixth District representative is one of the greatest orators in the country and nowhere is his masterful eloquence more appreciated than in Indiana."

"Tonight he delivered his one hundred and fifty-first speech in this campaign. In enumerating the things which are dead he mentioned a long list of Democratic doctrines, including government ownership. 'What is there to invite a man to join this party where only ghosts walk?' he asked."

"Watson described conditions under the Cleveland administration as 'a mighty carnival of soup and rags.'"

He also took Bryan down the line. When the peerless leader was in Indiana last week he accused President Roosevelt of stealing Democratic thunder. 'Why,' said Watson, 'there never was a falseness accusation. The Democratic party could leave any of its principles hanging on a clothesline over night and no one would ever think of stealing them.'

Bryan, he said, was one of those men who would burn a barn to kill the rats in it. 'The Democratic party,' he asserted, 'never had anything to do with Uncle Sam when it didn't put him on crutches.'

Not Misrepresented

Mr. Boland, the Connersville representative of the Indianapolis Star, comes back at Sylvester Meek in a statement in the Connersville News, which follows:

In the Rushville Jacksonian, of November 1, appeared the following:

"Connersville, Oct. 21st, 1906.

The statement in the Indianapolis Star of October 29 inst., was written by a Mr. Bolen, of notoriety, and as to the statement in regard to James E. Watson, it is a deliberate misrepresentation. I refused to make any statement as to the Congressional situation in any way."

SYLVESTER MEEK,
Democratic Chairman of the Sixth District.

I am the person who as representative of the Indianapolis Star obtained the statement from Chairman Sylvester Meek in the court room in this city. I am unaware of having gained any notoriety other than that growing out of a persistent fight against a ring of corrupt public officials in a neighboring county. In that fight these officials were made to turn back into the county treasury some thousands of dollars of public money that they had appropriated to their own use. In my contention I was sustained by both the Supreme and Appellate courts of the State.

Confident in the knowledge that I quoted Mr. Meek fairly, and backed by a witness whose statement will hardly be questioned, I am forced, in justice to myself and to the cause of truth, to denounce the said Sylvester Meek, Democratic chairman of the Sixth Congressional District, in so far as his utterance in the Rushville Jacksonian goes, as a wilful utterer of falsehood and slander.

LEWIS M. BOLAND.

CORROBORATIVE PROOF.

I was present, at my desk, some three or four feet away from them, when the Indianapolis Star representative approached Mr. Meek with a paper in his hand. There was apparently no attempt by either to prevent others hearing what was said, and I caught the general drift of what was said on both sides. I read the statement alleged to have been made by Mr. Meek, in the Star, and it was in all essential particulars as he uttered it.

A. L. CHRISMAN,
Circuit Clerk.

WHAT MEEK REALLY SAID.
Connersville, November 2, 1906.
"Connersville, Ind., Oct. 28.
"Indianapolis Morning Star:
"I predict that James E. Watson's majority in the Sixth District will be greatly reduced (would not quote figures); that the Republican majority on the State ticket will not exceed 3500; that Democratic representatives will be elected from Shelby, Hancock, Union and Franklin counties, and probably from Rush county and that Democratic county tickets will be elected in Shelby, Franklin and Hancock counties.

"SYLVESTER MEEK,
"Democratic Chairman of the Sixth District."

Republicans, stand by your party, the party of Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley, the party of progress and reform, the party of Roosevelt and Hanly, the party that has made this country prosperous and happy. Vote the straight Republican ticket by putting your cross underneath the eagle within the circle. Beware of the still hunt and don't let yourself be bamboozled.

The Rev. Kuhn's principal campaign howl is that the taxpayers are being robbed because Congress voted to pay the President's traveling expenses. He omits to state that the executive of the United States,—the greatest country on earth—is paid the smallest salary of any executive of any country. When figured out the "robbery" amounts to one cent for every thirty people, and is an indirect tax at that.

Governor Hanly has sent out the following personal letter to third party Prohibitionists throughout the State:

"Dear Sir:—Don't you believe you can afford it, this year to stand by the State administration and for administrative officers and for members of the General Assembly who will support it? If the work of the administration appeals to you, ought you not to give expression to your conviction through your ballot? The issue in Indiana this fall is moral rather than political and the verdict of the people on Nov. 6th, as registered at the ballot box will demonstrate whether or not, from a political standpoint, it pays to administer government with clean hands and high purposes. May I not count on you to do this?"

The revelations brought out in the present divorce proceedings of the Countess de Castellane (Anna Gould), shows that after Boni spent eight millions of his wife's money in strenuous riotous living, he even beat her, like a true Frenchman. The many inevitable and unhappy denunciations in the past marriages of American heiresses to foreign titled fortune hunters, ought to be an object lesson to the balance of the American heiresses. But does it teach them a lesson? No! They go right on, like sheep to the slaughter, be it said to the shame of American women. Anna Gould ought to be sufficiently Parisianized by this time to know that French women, as a rule, take beatings from their husbands without a murmur—it is a French custom. Even the women that live with men without the formality of the marriage tie, take the beatings as a matter of course.

The decision of the railroad commission in the case of the Root factory against two local railroads in Connersville, is of importance as foreshadowing the attitude of the commission on all similar cases. In effect, the commission said, by this decision, that in all cases where two or more railroads in a city or town, these roads would have to build a connecting switch. This means, in other words, that where a shipper is located on one of several railroads in any city, he will have direct shipping access to every railroad. Hitherto, especially where two or more roads crossed, one above the other—not at grade, that is—there has been no physical connection between them, and shippers located on one line could not have access to the other or others. This was the situation in Connersville, and the commission ordered that the connecting switch be built. This will have to be started by November 29. One point settled by a decision of the commission was not satisfactory to the shippers—in deciding the case of the Indiana Veneer and Lumber company against the Indiana Car Service association, the commission dodged the question of reciprocal demurrage, that the shippers have been so anxious to obtain. In effect, the commission, in its decision, in which some relief was granted to the shippers, says that it has no power to deal with the question of reciprocal demurrage, but that will have to be taken up in the next legislature.

Both the Democrats and the Republicans, now at the tag end of the campaign, are getting hard up, financially. The Democrats have had a need for the necessary funds for some months, but only in the past week has the Republican need been so great. A levy was made around the state house this week. John McCordle of New Richmond, member of the finance committee of the state Republican committee, and Cyrus Neal of the insurance department of the auditor's office, doing the honors. The two went the complete rounds of the state house great and small and all who had not contributed before (and some who had) were asked to help out a little for the good of the cause.

THE CENTRAL FIGURE

Governor Hanly Stands Out Prominently in This Campaign.

Indianapolis, Ind., November 3.—About the only general interest in Tuesday's election has to do with the legislative canvass, and in this Governor Hanly is the central figure. Among the better class of citizens, be they Democrats or Republicans, there is a pronounced desire that the next general assembly may be made up of men who will stand by the governor in his policy of reform. With men in the legislature to aid him, Governor Hanly will give this state some legislation that it has needed for a long time past. In some communities Republicans are being fought because they are known not to be in sympathy with Governor Hanly's policy. And in other communities, the moral forces are working day and night for Democratic candidates who have declared themselves in favor of the governor's proposed reforms. This makes the 1906 campaign a Hanly campaign, and the result will be eagerly awaited as it will doubtlessly have much effect upon the future political aspirations of the chief executive.

Since April 1, 1906, there has been paid into the state treasury, over $200 on account of interest that Auditor Bigler and Secretary of State Sims have received from banks on the public moneys. Secretary Sims has turned in about $140 himself, and Auditor Bigler the rest. Governor Hanly still insists that a public depository bill be passed by the next legislature and he has had several of his personal friends, in the state house and out, draft tentative bills looking to that end. In addition to that the Marion County Bar association will present a bill along these lines, so, all in all there will be no lack of public depository bills, when the next legislature meets.

Indianapolis still refuses to get warmed up over the coming election, despite the efforts of the leaders of both parties to bring out the enthusiasm. It seems that the Democrats are concentrating their efforts in order to elect a few of their county ticket—places where they think the Republican ticket is weak. The Republicans are bending every effort to bolster up these weak places.

Columbia City, Ind., Nov. 3.—Homer Knisely, the twelve-year-old son of Emanuel Knisely, was found dead in his father's barn, with a rope encircling his neck, one end of which was attached to a beam above. The lad was in good spirits when last seen, and it is not likely that he committed suicide. He is thought to be the victim of an accident.

REVOKED LICENSE TO KILL
France Deposits the Cannibalistic King of Annam.

Paris, Nov. 3.—M. Millies-Lacroix, minister of the colonies, has decided to summon the Annam state council and depose King Than-Thai.

A dispatch from Marseilles Oct. 17 said that Than-Thai had been adjudged insane and that the French authorities had made him prisoner. Previously the king had ordered seven of his wives executed and looked on with delight while they were slowly tortured to death. After killing one of his wives he had the body cooked and served for dinner, forcing the members of his court by threats of death to eat it. Some of the king's wives were bound, burned with boiling oil and subjected to other cruelties, and naked women were thrown into the cages of wild animals to be devoured in the presence of the king. When Than-Thai was made prisoner by the French authorities they released the terror-stricken inmates of the palace.

JAP SCHOOL QUESTION
National Government Will Aid Orientalists in Their Contentions.

San Francisco, Nov. 3.—The government at Washington has taken steps to aid the Japanese of this city in their fight to secure admission to the public schools of San Francisco. United States Attorney General Moody has instructed United States District Attorney Robert T. Devlin to lend his aid to Attorneys R. M. Fickert and Masajui Myakawa, representing the Japanese community, in the injunction proceedings that have been brought in the circuit court to compel the board of education to allow Japanese children to enter any of the schools of the city to which white children are admitted. District Attorney Devlin refuses to discuss this latest order. He refers all questioners to Secretary Metcalf. Attorney Myakawa stated that he had requested the court to suspend proceedings pending the investigation now being instituted by the secretary of commerce and labor.

SUCCESSFUL TOUR

Vice President Fairbanks Creates Good Impression in Indiana.

END OF LONG TRIP TODAY

Indiana "Swing Around the Circle" Will Conclude With Big Rally at Evansville Tonight.

Some of the Interesting Incidents That Have Marked Notable Campaign Tour.

Evansville, Ind., November 3.—Vice-President Fairbanks will close his four-days' speaking tour of Indiana tonight in this city, where a great demonstration has been planned in his honor.

Advance couriers of the vice-president's party, who have arrived here, speak of the interest that has been aroused over the state by the progress of the distinguished gentleman. There have been many pleasing little incidents during the trip, and at almost every station that the train passed people were out to see the vice-president, even if they could not hear him speak. The interest displayed in his movements over the state was remarkable. Everybody seemed to have the route of the train and to know just when it would pass through their locality. One of the prettiest sights was at Claypool, between Warsaw and Wabash. Not far from the railroad station is a little red schoolhouse that poets rave about, and romances tell stories of. When the engine whistle was heard the pupils piled pell mell from the school room, lined up in front of the building and waved their hands as the train flew by.

The vice-president who was sitting at the window, saw this, and with an exclamation of delight broke off his conversation with the politicians clustered about him, ran to the rear platform and waved his hat in acknowledgment of the salute of the children. At several places Mr. Fairbanks spoke appreciatively of the presence of the children who gathered about him on his way from the car to the speaker's platform. At one place as he walked along a little girl on each side grasped his hand and trotted beside him. The showing of the boys and girls pleased the vice-president greatly.

CHURCH NEWS

—Hereafter Rev. Hawthorne and Rev. Toethers will preach alternately for the Hannegan church congregation.

—The United Brethren church of Henderson is holding a series of revival meetings with marked success this week.

—The Methodist church in Glenwood will close a two weeks' revival next Sunday. It was one of the most successful series of revivals ever held in that town, and unusual interest was taken in the meetings. M. L. Fancher, a singing evangelist assisted the pastor, Rev. J. L. Perry. The last meeting will be held Sunday night and it is believed that a number of people will join the church at that meeting.

—First Presbyterian Church, Rev. Thomas H. McConnell, pastor.—9:30 a. m., Sunday school and Bible classes; 10:30 a. m., service of worship with sermon on, "The Shadow of Unconscious Influence;" 7:00 p. m., service of praise, with sermon on "The Demands of Our Age Upon the Presbyterian Church." Mrs. Kate Wilson has kindly consented to again take charge of the choir, and those who know of her untiring efforts in the past will be glad to welcome her and look forward to splendid music from a large choral choir.

—All Presbyterian roads will run towards Indianapolis week after next, and many are busy in preparation for the great meeting. It will be held from Tuesday to Thursday, November 13-15. Delegates may be sent from any church or society of men in a church, and it will be open not only to regular delegates but also to all Presbyterian laymen and ministers. Special railroad rates may be secured according to the announcements that have been published. It will open with a great banquet on Tuesday evening, costing one dollar a plate, after which the program will consist of addresses by able speakers with plenty of time and liberty for general discussion. The aim of the movement is to organize and band together our men for practical Christian work, as our women have been organized in missionary societies and our young people in Christian Endeavor societies. The men are an immense dormant force in the church, and if they can get them awake and organized and into action we pastors will be ready to say: "We were like them that dream. Then was our month filled with laughter and our tongues with singing; then said they among the heathen, The Lord hath done great things for them. The Lord hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad." There is no limit to the number of persons who may attend, but the voting members of the convention are limited to those chosen according to the Plan. Send names of voting delegates, for registration, to John Clark Hill, Springfield, Ohio, and for information concerning entertainment, to Rev. Dr. Frank O. Ballard, Indianapolis, Ind.

The program in detail will not be issued until the Convention assemblies. The topics already arranged for discussion and conference are as follows: The Presbyterian Church: What it Stands For; The Man and the Church; Brotherhood; It's Need in the Church; It's Demand on the Church; It's Development Within the Church Service; The Men of our Church and the Labor Interests; The Men of our Church and the Evangelization of our Countrymen; The Men of our Church and Bible Study; The Men of our Church and their Minister; The Men of our Church and the Spiritual Life; The Men and Clives; The Men and the Evangelization of the World.

The list of speakers definitely assured, includes the following: Rev. Hunter Corbett, D. D., moderator of the General Assembly. Rev. John E. Bushnell, D. D., Minneapolis, Minn.; Hon. H. B. McFarland, Washington, D. C.; Rev. W. H. Roberts, D. D., Philadelphia, Pa.; Rev. Chas. W. Gordon, (Ralph Conner), Winnipeg, Canada; Hon. William Jennings Bryan, Lincoln, Neb.; Mr. Patterson Dubois, Philadelphia, Pa.; Rev. Ira Landrith, D. D., Nashville, Tenn.; Mr. Robert E. Speer, Mr. Joseph E. McAfee, Rev. J. Ross Stevenson, D. D.; Rev. W. W. White, D. D., Rev. Chas. Stelzle, New York; Mr. Chas. G. Trumbull, Mr. H. C. Gara, Philadelphia; Mr. Louis H. Severance, Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. John H. Converse, Philadelphia; President C. W. Dabney, Cincinnati.

Prof. A. E. Martin president of the Presbyterian Brotherhood of this city was elected as delegate to the Convention. Rev. T. H. McConnell will represent his church and Presbytery. These men have already secured their tickets to the banquet. "Ralph Conner" is one of the principle speakers for that evening.

Within Less Than Three Degrees of the Pole Peary Turns Back.

STERN BATTLE FOR LIFE

In Securing For the United States a Unique Record Intrepid Commander Often Faces Death.

Almost Within Sight of the Goal Exploring Party Was Turned Back by the Drift.

New York, Nov. 3.—The United States now holds the record of "furthest north"—87 degrees, 6 minutes. This feat was accomplished by Commander Robert E. Peary of the United States navy. The intrepid Arctic explorer failed to reach the north pole, as he had confidently hoped to do with his specially constructed vessel, the Roosevelt, but he penetrated nearer to the pole than the Duke of Abruzzi's expedition, which had held the

THE ROOSEVELT.

Arctic record, 86 degrees, 34 minutes. What Commander Peary did, and his experiences during the past year in the frozen north are briefly but vividly summarized in a communication received last night by Herbert L. Bridgeman, secretary of the Peary Arctic club. This communication follows:

"Hopedale, Labrador, via Twillingate, N. F., Nov. 2.—Herbert L. Bridgeman:

"Roosevelt wintered north coast of Grant Land, somewhat north Alert's winter quarters. Went north with sledges in February via Hecla and Columbia. Delayed by open water between 84 and 85 degrees; beyond 85 six days. Gale disrupted ice, destroyed caches, cut off communication with supporting bodies and drifted due east. Reached 87 degrees 6 minutes north latitude over ice, drifting steadily eastward. Returning to eight dogs. Drifted eastward delayed by open water, reaching north coast Greenland in straitened conditions. Killed musk oxen and returned along Greenland coast to ship. Two supporting parties driven on north coast Greenland. One rescued by me in starving condition. After one week recuperation on Roosevelt sledged west, completing north coast Grant Land and reached other land, near 100th meridian. Homeward voyage incessant battle with ice, storms and headwinds. Roosevelt magnificent ice fighter and sea boat. No deaths or illness in expedition.—Peary."

After furnishing the press the contents of Commander Peary's report, Mr. Bridgeman said that the receipt of news was a surprise to him, because he had supposed it had become too late in the season for Commander Peary to send word of his venture. Mr. Bridgeman added that the message spoke for itself, and that since he did not know more of the results of Commander Peary's effort to reach the pole than the public did, he could hardly comment upon the dispatch. There was little doubt, however, he said, that Commander Peary was coming home. This seems to be borne out by the routing of the dispatch. Hopedale or Hoffenthal is a Moravian mission station on the east coast of Labrador. Twillingate is a port on the east coast of Newfoundland. Mr. Bridgeman said the message was probably mailed by Commander Peary from Hopedale to the most accessible cable point.

When nothing had been heard from the Roosevelt by last July, friends of the Arctic explorer, who had expected a message of some kind in May or June, began to be worried. This anxiety, however, was not shared by the members of the Peary Arctic club, who then said they did not expect to hear from Peary until October or November. It was explained that his only way of getting news down from the north was by whaling ships.

Peary planned to have his headquarters 350 miles north of Cape Sabine. From that point he planned to make his actual journey to the pole, a distance of 500 miles, across a desert of ice and snow. The final dash he expected to accomplish in a month or six weeks. In an interview before he left New York, Commander Peary expressed confidence in the success of the venture.

—Horrid Disease in Guam. Washington, Nov. 3.—An infectious, painful and repulsive disease is reported by Admiral Rixey as being prevalent in Guam. Naval surgeons are studying and treating the disease, which has so far been confined to natives. Rhinopharyngitis mutilans is the name of the disease, which is an ulceration that destroys the nose and upper parts of the face. At present there are about 200 cases on the island.

JAP SPY ARRESTED

Young Officer Was Sketching Our Defenses in Manila.

Manila, Nov. 3.—A young Japanese officer who holds a commission as captain of engineers in the mikado's army, was caught while in disguise as he was engaged in sketching certain of the fortifications of Manila harbor. He was promptly placed under arrest and steps will be taken to have him deported immediately.

A search of the young officer's effects brought to light several well-executed sketches of forts in the islands. One of his charts showed the number of guns, distribution of soldiers stationed in each fort and general comments on the effectiveness of the defenses.

Washington Not Surprised.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Although no official report has yet been received in Washington relative to the arrest of a Japanese officer for sketching the fortifications at Manila, officials of the war and state departments were not greatly surprised when informed of the act. It has been suspected for some time that the Japanese army has had scouts at work secretly, not only in the Philippines, but in the United States as well.

TOO MUCH PROSPERITY

The Railroads Cannot Handle All the Business Offered.

New York, Nov. 3.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade today says: Clear and colder weather has improved retail trade and stimulated reorder business greatly, resulting in a record October trade with jobbers, besides helping the coal trade and kindred lines. Industry is active, labor scarcity is still a feature, iron and steel markets are advancing, and large imports are the only apparent source of relief. Holiday trade preparations and sales have been so far encouraging. Spring business is of good volume as a whole. The only really hurtful development, itself an outgrowth of superabundant prosperity, is the growing tension as regards the transportation facilities. Demands for increased wages are an additional feature pressing for attention upon railway managers, but amicable settlements are hoped for.

Strikers Return to Work.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The strike of machinists on the Southern railway, which was inaugurated recently for an increase in wages, has been settled. The strike was declared off and the men will return to work Monday without prejudice on account of the strike. The men who remained with the company are to continue at work. The wages offered to the machinists prior to the strike are to apply from Nov. 5 and the company's proposition to arbitrate the differences between that scale and the demand of the union has been accepted.

They'll Know Tuesday.

New York, Nov. 3.—Leaders of both parties have renewed their professions of absolute confidence in the outcome of Tuesday's balloting. Timothy Woodruff, chairman of the Republican state committee, declared he was perfectly satisfied with the prospects and predicted for Mr. Hughes a sweeping victory. On the other hand Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany, reiterated his assurance that Tammany would poll its full vote for Hearst and that he was confident the Democratic candidate would be elected by a large majority.

President Castro's Condition.

Fort de France, Martinique, Nov. 3.—Passengers arriving here from Venezuela by the steamer Canada bring the information that President Castro, whose health has improved, was moved Oct. 25 from the coast to Caracas, and on Oct. 27 from Caracas to Sabana Grande, near the capital. With the exception of those ministering to his person, no one is permitted to come near the president. Business in Venezuela is in a condition of paralysis because of the general uneasiness for the future.

Cuba's Present Armament.

Havana, Nov. 3.—Major Edwin St. J. Greble reports that after the destruction of 13,000 insurgent and unserviceable rifles at Moro castle there remain for the Cuban government 20,000 rifles of various types, 370,000 cartridges, three dynamite guns, five field guns and four mountain guns.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

Liquidation by local holders caused moderate weakness in the Chicago wheat market.

Business failures for the week number 163, against 184 last week and 160 in the corresponding week of 1905.

The strike of machinists on the Southern Railway has been amicably settled and the men will return to work.

Japan has decided to begin the construction of a battleship exceeding the displacement of the Dreadnought by 3,000 tons.

James A. McMillen, aged sixty-five years, a wealthy business man of Pittsburg, was found murdered and with pockets rifled.

Advices from Commander Peary show that the explorer failed to reach the North Pole, but that he made the furthest record north, 87 degrees, 6 minutes.

The wages of all employees of the Pennsylvania railroad system on lines east and west of Pittsburg are to be increased. Nearly 150,000 men will be affected.

The Shame of Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Nov. 3.—The county grand jury investigating the registration frauds that have been uncovered in this city, have found that over 8,000 names were duplicated or fraudulent. Twenty-three deputy county clerks have been subpoenaed to tell what they know of the matter. The men received 2 cents per name for registration.

Bryan on Dreams.

Omaha, Nov. 3.—William J. Bryan will speak here tonight on the subject of "Dreams," having reference to a speech made in Lincoln recently by Senator Beveridge of Indiana, in which he called Mr. Bryan a dreamer.

A JOKE FOR SMOKERS

Try it on Your Bald-Headed
Friends and Have a Laugh

If you smoke a cigar that burns with good solid ashes that will not fall off until the cigar is half smoked up, such a cigar as the Wadsworth Bros. Chicos, sold by Thos. W. Lytle, you can have a good joke on some bald headed friend.
Where there is an inch or two of ash on the end of the cigar just let it fall on the bald head and see how high it can jump. The ashes are not hot enough to burn, but they are warm enough to be felt.

The Chicos are a real ten cent Havana filled cigar that Thos. W. Lytle sells for a nickel, and is the only 5c. cigar where the ashes are firm and solid like those of expensive grades. You will enjoy a Chico anyway, so try one and see how good it is.

AMUSEMENTS

Get your seats early and avoid the
S. R. O. sign, was the talk heard on all sides this morning, when they started to post bills for the coming of Lincoln J. Carter's "The Fast Mail," on Monday, Nov. 5th, at the opera house. This is Mr. Carter's greatest play, and laid the foundation of his fortune. As a scenic drama it has never been equaled. Every theatre goer from coast to coast has heard of "The Fast Mail," it is a household by-word. People that never patronize a theatre always break their rule when this good old melodrama comes to town. This season Mr. Carter has given it a brand new production, a good cast, and has added new spectacles.
